THE APOSTLES' CREED.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth ; and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived of the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He descended into hell: the third day he arose again from the dead ; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty ; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost ; the holy catholic church ; the communion of saints ; the forgiveness of sins ; the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

REV. E. A. HOFFMAN.

"Pray without ceasing."—1 Thess. 5: 17.

E. S. LORENZ.

1. Fol - low - ing the Mas - ter with a firm, un - shaken trust, Praying ev - er - more, praying ev - er - more;
 2. Fol - low - ing the Mas - ter while the cross I dai - ly bear, Praying ev - er - more, praying ev - er - more;
 3. Fol - low - ing the Mas - ter in the dark - ness or the light, Praying ev - er - more, praying ev - er - more;
 4. Fol - low - ing the Mas - ter in the con - se - cra - ted way, Praying ev - er - more, praying ev - er - more;
 5. Fol - low - ing the Mas - ter as a shar - er of his love, Praying ev - er - more, praying ev - er - more;

CHORUS.

In the open pathway or the desert's heat and dust, Till I reach the other shore.
 Knowing that a crown of life eternal I shall wear, O - ver on the other shore. Thus I watch and thus I pray,
 Upward to the city with its many mansions bright, Just beyond the other shore.
 Holding to his mighty arm lest I should go astray. Clinging to him ever - more.
 Ceasing not to serve him till I reach the home above, Just beyond the other shore.

Trusting Je - sus ev'ry day, Fol - low - ing his footsteps in the blessed, narrow way, blessed, narrow way.

LORD OF ALL BEING.

W. HOLMES.

"Him that rideth upon the heavens of heavens, which were of old."—Ps. 68 : 33.

E. S. LORENZ.

1. Lord of all be - ing! throned a - far, Thy glo - ry flames from sun and star;
 2. Sun of our life! thy quick'ning ray Sheds on our path the glow of day;
 3. Our mid-night is thy smile with-drawn; Our noon - tide is thy gra - cious dawn;

Cen - ter and soul of ev - 'ry sphere, Yet to each lov - ing heart how near!
 Star of our hope! thy soft - ened light Cheers the long watch-es of the night,
 Our rain - bow arch thy mer - cy's sign; All, save the clouds of sin, are thine,

Yet to each lov - ing heart how near!
 Cheers the long watch-es of the night.
 All, save the clouds of sin, are thine.

4 Lord of all life, below, above!
 Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love,
 Before thine ever-blazing throne,
 We ask no luster of our own.

5 Grant us thy truth to make us free,
 And kindling hearts that burn for thee,
 Till all thy living altars claim
 One holy light, one heavenly flame.

Whatever you have in the line of Sunday-School helps, you will find

MEREDITH'S POCKET VOLUMES

— ON THE —

International Sunday-School Lessons,

A specially convenient and valuable aid, and sometimes indispensable. Why? Because, First, they are so handy—just the size for the pocket. Second, they contain so many concise statements and brief, suggestive thoughts that they fit in the “snatches of time” on which so much of the lesson preparation nowadays must depend. Third, the author, as leader of a Bible class of two thousand teachers, meeting weekly in Tremont Temple, Boston, has demonstrated his ability to supply what teachers need.

LOOK AT THESE OPINIONS.

It is in form the most handy of all the helps, and in other respects is among the very best. The critical notes are chiefly eclectic, giving the pithy words of the best commentators; but the analyses and practical expositions, both exceedingly well done, are by Mr. Meredith himself. In design and execution the work is altogether admirable.—The Advance, Chicago.

It is handy, compact, sensible and vigorous.—Springfield Republican.

It is about as neat and satisfactory a presentation of the Sunday-School lessons, in its general get up, as we have seen.—Presbyterian Journal, Philadelphia.

This is a successful effort to make a book for the pocket which contains a reasonably full exposition of the Sabbath-School lessons for three months of the year; a book which the business man or the laborer may carry in his side-pocket without inconvenience, and thus have it ready to refer to in a moment of leisure—in a car or in a waiting-room, or at any other time. We commend it.—Journal and Messenger, Cincinnati.

It takes the foremost rank. It combines compilation and original work effectively, is popular in style and practical and earnest in temper. It expounds the lessons with unusual skill, and comes as near being what a work should be as any book of the year.—The Congregationalist, Boston.

Though compactness and portableness have been studied to the utmost, the type is clear and handsome. It is a thoroughly handy volume. Mr. Meredith's notes themselves need no commendation. He has the largest teachers' classes in the world, probably, and is a master in this kind of work. The notes are absolutely free from “padding” or verbiage.—Christian Intelligencer, New York.

The form in which this commentary is issued is altogether in its favor, and the work has been done with good judgment.—The National Baptist, Philadelphia.

It is a compilation gleaned, compacted, well arranged and exceedingly concise. You come into possession at once of the best thoughts of the most recent writers upon the portions of Scripture treated in the lesson.—Presbyterian Witness, Halifax.

Price for the year, One Dollar; Single numbers, Thirty Cents.

BEFORE SUPPLYING YOUR SCHOOL WITH A LARGE SUNDAY-SCHOOL MUSIC
BOOK, EXAMINE

"GATES OF PRAISE."

Sabbath-School Superintendents of long experience pronounce it the best in the market, because

- I. Its hymns are well written, practical, and full of the Gospel.
- II. Its music is expressive of the sentiment of the hymns, popular and easy, without being trashy or mechanical.
- III. It meets every want of Sabbath Schools, containing several opening exercises, short anthems, songs for every occasion, Easter, Christmas, New Year's, Missionary Meetings, Temperance Meetings, Funerals, etc.
- IV. The book contains 192 pages, from 32 to 64 more than most books of its price. It is printed on good paper, and well bound.

Single copy 35 cents; specimen copy 25 cents: $3.60 per dozen, or $30.00 per hundred.
